

houses of the legislature be declared duly elected directors on the part of this state in the Union Bank of Maryland.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which was read.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

S A T U R D A Y, November 29, 1806.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The bill, entitled, An act for the relief of John Figg, of Montgomery county, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution contained in the message relative to the appointment of two directors on the part of this state in the Union Bank was read the second time and assented to.

The following message was read, agreed to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

By the S E N A T E, November 29, 1806.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

WE have assented to the resolution regulating the election of two directors on the part of this state in the Union Bank, and agree to go into the election on the day proposed in your message. Mr. John Walraven is put in nomination by the senate, in addition to those named by you. Mr. Partridge and Mr. Gibson will join the gentlemen appointed by your house for the examination of the ballots.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

The senate adjourns until Monday morning 9 o'clock.

M O N D A Y, December 1, 1806.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on Saturday, except Mr. Whitely. The proceedings of Saturday were read. Mr. M'Elderry appeared in the senate. Mr. William Smithson appeared in the senate, and after taking the oaths required by the constitution and form of government, and subscribing a declaration of his belief in the Christian religion, and taking the oath for the support of the government of the United States, took his seat.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to lay out and open a public road in Hopkin's Neck, in Talbot county, passed by that house November 29, 1806; and the following message:

By the H O U S E of D E L E G A T E S, December 1, 1806.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

BELIEVING, as we do, that the business of the house can be acted on by the fifteenth of the present month, we therefore propose, with the concurrence of the senate, to close the session on that day.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

Which were severally read the first time and the bill ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Gibson asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Whitely for a few days.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T U E S D A Y, December 2, 1806.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday, except Mr. Duckett, who is indisposed. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill, entitled, An act annulling the marriage of George Sampson and Pamela Sampson, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The following message was read, agreed to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

By the S E N A T E, December 2, 1806.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

IN your message of yesterday you inform us, that believing the business of your house can be acted upon by the fifteenth of this month, you propose to close the session on that day. We, being fully impressed with the opinion that all the business of the session may be finally acted upon by that time, most readily concur in your proposition of rising on that day.

By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

The bill, entitled; An act to lay out and open a certain road in Cæcil county, was read the second time, passed with the proposed amendment, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

Amendment proposed. After the word "county" in the 7th line of the 2d page insert "if the said court should be of opinion that the said road would be of public benefit and utility."